

Escalation Process

2023-24

Purpose of the Process

In terms of internal governance arrangements, it is the responsibility of the Head of Centre to ensure that Northleigh House School has in place a written escalation process should the Head of Centre, or a member of the senior leadership team with oversight of the examination administration, be absent.

This process confirms the main duties and responsibilities to be escalated. This process also supports Northleigh House School being able to confirm to an awarding body the external governance arrangements so that the awarding body has confidence in the integrity of the centre activities such as the delivery of qualifications and the conducting of examinations and assessments.

Before Examinations (Planning)

In the event of the absence of the Head of Centre or the member of senior leadership with oversight of examination administration, responsibility for implementing JCQ regulations and requirements relating to activity prior to examinations will be escalated to Viv Morgan, Chair of Trustees.

To support understanding of the regulations and requirements, the following JCQ publications will be referenced:

After Examinations (Results and Post-Results)

As a contingency to enable the prompt handling of urgent issues only, the centre responds to the awarding bodies' request for information regarding the contact details of a senior member of staff (which might include a personal mobile number and/or email address). This will ensure that any urgent matters which might adversely affect candidates which arise outside of term time, and which potentially put qualification awards at risk, can be addressed by awarding bodies with the support of that member of staff. The head of centre will ensure that this member of staff has the necessary authority to mobilise resources to provide this support, which might include resolving issues within the centre itself (GR 5.3).

In the event of the absence of the head of centre or the member of senior leadership with oversight of examination administration, responsibility for implementing JCQ regulations and requirements relating to after examinations will be escalated to Viv Morgan, Chair of Trustees.
